

MARQUESAS, TUAMOTUS & THE SOCIETY ISLANDS

The Marquesas lie shrouded in mystery, with their mist-laden mountains and untouched wilderness. Here, wild stallions run free on Ua Huka. Fatu Hiva boasts only one road. And Paul Gauguin himself went to his eternal rest on Hiva Oa, buried beneath a statue of a Polynesian goddess.

Aboard the m/s Paul Gauguin – the highest-rated and longest continually sailing luxury cruise ship in the region – you will embark on a fabulous two-week voyage that also features tranquil Fakarava in the Tuamotus, where the snorkelling and scuba diving opportunities offered by the island's pristine lagoon are world renowned, and the Society Islands, a string of emerald islands nestled in warm Pacific waters.
